November List of the Dead: November is traditionally the month when we remember and celebrate: 'the lives of those for whom life has changed and the door of death has closed behind them'. In each of the three churches of the parish during November there will be a basket placed in the sanctuary for parishioners to place sealed envelopes of the names of the dead of their loved ones/family circle. During November we are invited to remember in a special way, our departed loved ones. This echoes the prayer of St. Monica 'don't trouble themselves about my body. I simply ask you to remember me at the Lord's altar wherever you may be'. It is for this reason we offer Mass for our dearly departed, usually on or around the anniversary of their death.

Hymns at Lagg - November: - Entrance Peace, perfect peace. No.445. Offertory: Lord accept the gifts we offer. No.320. Communion: God forgive my sin. No.175. Recessional: As I kneel before you. No.45.

Everyone is important: During Mark's first month of college, the professor gave his students a pop quiz. He was a conscientious student and had breezed through the questions, until he read the last one: "What is the first name of the woman who cleans the school?" Surely this was some kind of joke. He had seen the cleaning woman several times. She was tall, dark-haired and in her 50s, but how would he know her name? He handed in his paper, leaving the last question blank. Just before class ended, one student asked if the last question would count toward the quiz grade. "Absolutely," said the professor. "In your careers, you will meet many people. All are significant. They each deserve your attention and care, even if all you do is smile and say 'hello'". Mark never forgot that lesson. He also learned her name was Dorothy.

Friendship: Have you ever met a person, that fulfilled you deep inside...Someone who's never failed you. And stands, no matter what, always by your side. Someone who gives from their heart, who brings sunshine all around... always smiling and laughing, never seeming down. Have you ever watched a sunset across the ocean shore... and been filled with love and peace, Never needing more? Have you ever listened to the wind blowing restlessly through the night...and heard the angel's whispers helping you to see when you've lost sight? Have you heard a song that moves you and sets your soul free...makes you forget your pain and anger or makes you feel wild and happy? Have you ever given to someone when you didn't have it to spare... And afterwards felt so worthy inside, that you didn't have a care? You see my friend, heavenly creatures surround you, So listen closely to what they say...They'll bring you all of life's riches, As they guide you along your way.

'The Lord is faithful, and he will give you strength and guard you from the evil one....
May the Lord turn your hearts towards the love of God and the fortitude of Christ'. –
Second Reading.
