November – A Time to Remember the Dead: During the month of November Catholics traditionally remember the dead. We do this not in any morbid or fearful way but rather in a spirit of hope and joy. We pray for those who have gone before us and are now in purgatory awaiting entrance to the presence of God. We do not think, as the world seems to, that the dead are 'out of sight, out of mind'. Rather they are still in communion with us and we can help them with our prayers.
