Cursillo 30th Anniversary Renewal Weekend: This year, 2015, is the 30th Anniversary of the founding of the Cursillo movement in the Diocese of Derry. To mark this occasion the Derry Diocesan Secretariat are holding a special Renewal weekend at Termonbacca Carmelite Retreat Centre. The weekend begins on Thursday evening 24th September with a thanksgiving Mass, in St Eugene's Cathedral, for the gift of Cursillo to the Derry diocese. This will be celebrated by Bishop Donal Mc Keown during which he will deliver a key note address on the missionary role of the laity. Anyone who has done a Cursillo is invited to attend. The weekend proper opens on Friday morning at Termonbacca with a full programme of talks by invited guest speakers, from around Ireland, and spiritual events including a reconciliation service in the afternoon and Healing Mass. It continues until Sunday 27th September and is primarily aimed at personal spiritual renewal and re-commitment by all those who have ever done a Cursillo weekend to living out what is fundamental to being a Christian. It is loosely based on the themes that dominate a traditional Cursillo weekend, i.e. an encounter with self, with Christ and with others. However, it is not a traditional Cursillo weekend and therefore it is also open to anyone who might want to take some time for personal reflection, prayer and spiritual development or indeed to get a flavour of what Cursillo is all about.
