Parish Prayer Day for Marriage and Family Life: Parish Prayer Day for Marriage and Family Life. The theme for May: Children and Young People. Monday 20th June, our parish prays for the 24 hours for Marriage & Family Life. This is part of a Movement of Continuous Prayer for Marriage & Family Life as other parishes and groups take on the prayer for the other days of the month. Everyone is invited to join in this prayer, either by taking on an hour, or by including this intention in your own prayer during that day. You can tune into this on @JohnnyDoherty3 on Twitter. The joy of love – Pope Francis. The questions I would put to parents are these: “Do you understand ‘where’ our children really are in their journey?” “Where is their soul, do we really know?” And, above all, “do we want to know?”. The strengthening of the will and the repetition of specific actions are the building blocks of moral conduct; without the conscious, free, and valued repetition of certain patterns of good behaviour, moral education cannot take place. Mere desire, or an attraction to a certain value, is not enough to instil a virtue in the absence of those properly motivated acts. Raising children calls for an orderly process of handing on the faith. This is made difficult by current lifestyles, work schedules, and the complexity of today's world, where many people keep up a frenetic pace just to survive. Even so, the home must continue to be the place where we learn to appreciate the meaning and beauty of the faith, to pray, and to serve our neighbour.

Congratulations to Malin Head and Urblereagh Pupils who received the Sacrament of Communion this weekend.
