Pastimes Competition 2019 organised by Malin Head Heritage Group. We want to create a record in words and photographs of the pastimes in our Parish of Malin in times gone by. We would like you to talk to or ask your oldest living relative (or neighbour) - Great Grandparents, Grandparents - about how free time was spent when they were growing up, stories they heard and write up the information you discover. The type of material we would love to preserve includes stories and photos about any type of public performance in neighbouring homes or elsewhere. Your entry should include a short description of any pastime or the event recalled by the older generation and a photo if there is one. Please put a name and phone number on the back of photos and they will be returned. Where did these events take place and how often did they take place? Suggestions: Céilíng in houses. Country house dances. Musicians – their instruments, favourite tunes, local tunes? Dancing, dancers – over the tongs/brush? Story tellers – their stories. Singers – their songs, especially local songs. Poems – recitations. Card playing – where, what games/ prizes? Team sports – soccer, gaelic, hurling, tug - of - war. Choirs. Regatta, Sports days, boat races etc. Variety Concerts in local halls. Poets, artists, writers, etc. Write or print on A4, on one side of page only please. Included photos will be returned. Entries by email to candtdoherty@eircom.net or Mullins Shop by end of June, 2019. Any questions? Phone Teresa on 087 2674857
