Parish Prayer Day for Marriage and Family Life: Proposed Theme: Married people who are separated or divorced. On Friday next 20th, our parish will once again pray for the 24 hours for Marriage and Family Life. Everyone is invited to join in this prayer, either by taking on an hour, or by including this intention in your own prayer. There is a lot of pain and suffering for those who find themselves in this situation. They need and deserve our love and care so that they can be supported through this time and find hope and health again. The Joy of Love: Pope Francis: In some cases, respect for one's own dignity and the good of the children requires not giving in to excessive demands or preventing a grave injustice, violence or chronic ill-treatment. In such cases, separation becomes inevitable. At times, it even becomes morally necessary, precisely when it is a matter of removing the more vulnerable spouse or young children from serious injury due to abuse and from humiliation and exploitation, and from disregard and indifference. (241) Divorced people, who have not remarried, and often bear witness to marital fidelity, ought to be encouraged to find in the Eucharist the nourishment they need to sustain them in their present state of life. The local community and pastors should accompany them with solicitude, particularly when children are involved or when they are in serious financial difficulty. (242) It is important that the divorced who have entered a new union should be made feel part of the Church. They are not excommunicated, and they should not be treated as such, since they remain part of the ecclesial community. (243)
